

~~107,151~~

No

No

CMS allocates more school-based non-instructional support (custodial and clerical staff) than the state non-instructional allotment provides. Each year, the district plans for this strategic transfer to enhance the non-instructional support allotment and maximize the use of all available funding sources. The initial transfer was reversed and this transfer was processed at a slightly higher dollar amount.