

In the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, we believe in the importance of families and schools working together. We believe that when families and schools work together, we can provide the best education for our students. We believe that when families and schools work together, we can make a difference in the lives of our students. We believe that when families and schools work together, we can create a better future for our students.

