

“curriculum night” to inform parents about curriculum, standards, and assessments feedback offer the school an incredible opportunity to redesign planned activities to accommodate parents' requests to continue building trust. Our parents gave input and suggestions for events and plans are in place to accommodate those requests.

We regularly invite parents to provide feedback and strive to be responsive whenever feedback is provided. We are establishing "neighborhood liaisons" – parents who will serve as We an